• Bar

After climbing the stairs at the entrance, a part is designed as a bar to make the residents as comfortable as possible.

• Pool

The swimming pool space is designed in such a way that it contains two basins, a bar, a changing room and a shower, and it creates a feeling of relaxation in people with a suitable design.

• Living room

In upper floor, the middle space is dedicated to the living room, and on one side of this part are the corridors of the rooms.

• Balcony

The terrace is a very pleasant space with appropriate dimensions and also has a green wall designed by this group.
